

SPECIAL EVENTS

Take a Bite out of History Oct. 25

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. Taste history as you sample antique apples grown by Roger Miller of Eaton Rapids. Then, learn the fascinating history of each apple and how the varieties have changed over time. Members of the Michigan Apple Committee discuss new apple varieties and how they can be used in recipes and menus. You'll discover that the saying, "an apple a day," has great importance to today's healthy lifestyles. Fee: $5

Statehood Day Brunch Jan. 25

10:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. Join the museum in celebrating the 167th anniversary of Michigan's entrance into the Union. The second annual Statehood Day Brunch features a new menu of selections popular during the early 19th century; music and dancing of the time period complete the historical atmosphere. A silent auction—open exclusively to brunch attendees—helps support museum programs while offering you the possibility of great deals. Fee: $40

Flag Day Celebration Dinner Jun. 14

6:00 to 9:00 P.M. What better day than Flag Day to pay homage to the flags that represent Michigan's role in the fight for freedom? You'll enjoy a traditional 1860s picnic dinner, surrounded by the sounds of Civil War-era music. Civil War reenactors will offer discussions and demonstrations. Capping the evening is an extremely rare opportunity to view the state's Civil War battle flags in their unique climate-controlled storage facility. Fee: $50

These workshops and special events are presented with the help of:

Everlasting Stitches, Holt
Lansing Storytellers
Michigan Apple Committee
Michigan Atlatl Association
MSU Dept. of Entomology

The Michigan Historical Museum has a mission to preserve and interpret our state's past. The following workshops, designed for adults, help preserve handicraft and other traditions.

- Each workshop is $35 unless noted.
- Fees include supplies unless noted.
- For further information, contact museum education specialist Jo Anne Arasim at (517) 373-1905 or arasimj@michigan.gov.

Rug Hooking for Beginners Oct. 26

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. Learn to create beautiful hooked rugs using traditional techniques and tools. This is a sequential five-session course. Other dates are November 2 and 23 and December 7 and 14. Each session has optional discussion and practice time from 3:00 to 5:00 P.M. Instructor: Wendy Hoard. Fee: $80 (supply list provided)

Sew Much Work, So Much Time Nov. 1

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. Discover the traditional techniques of hand-sewing a Civil War-era woman's apron patterned after one in the museum's collection. You'll view the historic apron and then be guided in the art of hand-sewing garments. Instructor: Laurie Dickens

A Housewife in the Civil War Nov. 2

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. No well-prepared soldier would have been without his housewife—a travel sewing kit—in the Civil War. You'll create this needed companion of the 1860s and view housewives from the museum's collection. Instructor: Pam Henrys

Snow Stepping Nov. 8

10:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Create your own drift-buster snowshoes with neoprene lacings using traditional designs. This is a full-day workshop, so bring a sack lunch. Instructors: Kate DeVries and Chris Kline Fee: $160

A Penny for Your Rug Nov. 16

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. Discover what a coin, some felt and the ability to make a blanket stitch can create! You'll make a penny rug—a tabletop decoration—in a whimsical American flag design using techniques developed in the mid 1800s. Instructor: Pam Henrys

Snow Stepping Jan. 10

See November 8 session for details.

Piece On Earth Jan. 11

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. Learn the basic techniques in hand piecing and sewing a pieced quilt square. Also, you will view pieced quilts from the museum's collection. Instructor: Pam Henrys

Building a Log Cabin Feb. 1

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. Discover the basics of foundation piecing techniques in quilt construction as you create a hand-sewn log cabin quilt square. You'll also view log cabin quilts from the museum's collection. Instructor: Pam Henrys

Look what I Found in My Attic... Feb. 21

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. While spring-cleaning you've come upon grandma's wedding dress, old family photos, original naturalization papers and the like. Learn the correct techniques to preserve your cherished keepsakes. Instructors: Laurie Dickens and Jo Anne Arasim

Say "Yo" to Yo-Yos Feb. 22

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. The yo-yo quilt was popular in the U.S. from the 1920s through the 1940s. Made of tiny circular pieces of fabric gathered at the edges, yo-yos can be carried with you and worked on whenever you have a free moment. You'll also view yo-yo quilts in the museum's collection. Instructor: Pam Henrys

Tell It Like It Is Feb. 22

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. One way civilizations pass on information from generation to generation is through storytelling. Learn how to use storytelling to remember historical information and guide you in becoming skilled in the art of storytelling. Instructors: Members of the Lansing Storytellers

Lighting the Way with Bees & Me Mar. 6

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. Get filled in on how bees fill their hives with their remarkable beeswax. Then, learn how to use the product of the bees' labors to create your own set of beeswax candles to take home and enjoy. Instructors: Zachary Wong Huang and Tami Averill

Look what I Found in My Attic... Mar. 20

See February 21 session for details.

Coloring Michigan Apr. 13

1:30 to 4:30 P.M. Discover your artistic abilities and a unique way of recording history. You'll receive an introduction to basic watercolor techniques over three afternoon sessions. Other dates: April 20 and 27. Instructor: Anita Saviko Fee: $80 (supply list provided)

Atl Be the Day Apr. 24

1:00 to 4:00 P.M. Imagine the sense of success felt by early hunters when they first wielded an advanced hunting device that we call an atlatl. Create your own atlatl and then try your hand at using it to throw spears long distance. Instructor: Chris Oberg

From Black & White to Lifelike May 8

1:00 to 3:00 P.M. Before the days of color photography, hand-tinting was a way to bring color and life to black-and-white photographs. You will learn the same techniques to create beautiful hand-colored versions of your historic family photos. Instructor: Karen Spitsbergen
